In the preceding entries in columns 9, 10, 11, 12, 13 to 20, the affirmative mark (/) is to be used to signify the fact stated in the proper column; thus, in the case of divorced persons, column 11, when the fact stated in column 11 is true in any case, the affirmative mark (/) will only be used in cases where an affirmative answer has been given to the inquiry in column 11.

In the case of persons engaged in any occupation, column 13, the affirmative mark (/) will only be used in cases where a person has been employed at his occupation during a portion of the year, and the number of months so employed is to be stated in column 14.

In the case of children at school, or persons without occupation, the word "at home," "at school," or "none," as the case may be, is to be written in column 13.
